1. Introduction

The European Commission is committed to protect your personal data and to respect your privacy. The Commission collects and further processes personal data pursuant to Regulation \(EU\) 2018/1725 of the European Parliament and of the Council on the protection of natural persons with regard to the processing of personal data by the Union institutions, bodies, offices and agencies and on the free movement of such data.

This privacy statement explains the reason for the processing of your personal data in the context of the organisation and management of the High-level Conference on COVID-19 lessons learned and looking ahead to ensure a stronger EU Health Security Framework. It explains the way we collect, handle and ensure protection of all personal data provided, how that information is used and what rights you have in relation to your personal data. It also specifies the contact details of the responsible Data Controller with whom you may exercise your rights, the Data Protection Officer and the European Data Protection Supervisor.

The information in relation to processing operation Health Security in the EU event, undertaken by Directorate-General for Health and Food Safety, Health Security Unit of the European Commission, is presented below.

2. Why and how do we process your personal data?

Purpose of the processing operation: The European Commission collects and further processes your personal data to provide you with information about the conference (before, during and after) and to process your application for participation in that conference. More specifically, this concerns the following processing activities:

- communication activities such as sending e-mails and invitations (this entails the management of contact lists for correspondence);
- exchange of meeting documents (notably through information sharing and circulation of documents via e-mail and sharing of information with other Commission services to follow-up on the conference);
- organisational and administrative activities to ensure the participants' access to Commission premises (see Record of Processing DPR-EC-00655 (Commission Physical Access Control System (PACS)));
- audio-visual recording of the meetings for the purpose of drafting minutes (see Records of Processing DPR-EC-0193703266 (Audio-visual recording of meetings) and DPR-EC-03266 (Audio and Audio -Visual Recording of meetings requested via the Commission's internal Room Booking system));
- WebEx webconferencing service (DPR-EC-05006), including recording of the conference and use of the information exchanged in the chat function for the purpose of drafting minutes of the conference
- publication of the report of the conference including the names of individuals appointed as speaker either in a personal capacity who are due to act independently and in the public interest, or to represent a common interest shared by stakeholders in a particular policy area, as well as of individuals invited as experts to take part in the work of the group on ad hoc basis. The reports may also include the positions of these individuals as expressed at the conference. In the case of the organisations, Member States' authorities and other public entities, the names of their representatives in the reports are subject to a prior consent (see section 3).

Live web-streaming and audio-visual recording at the High-level Conference on COVID-19 lessons learned and looking ahead to ensure a stronger EU Health Security Framework of the speakers, organisers and participants, as well as photographs of the speakers and panoramic photographs of participants and organisers will be taken and published in the context of the conference by the European Commission's contractor "Tipik Communication Agency" (www.cll-conference.eu)

The audience or non-speaker participants are not photographed individually or in groups. They may however appear on panoramic photographs of the whole event/audience.

The audience or non-speaker participants may be photographed individually or in groups and they may appear on panoramic photographs of the whole event/audience. They may also appear in the videos, or in the web streaming and individual short interviews. Participants that do not wish to be part of the above web-streaming and recording/publishing activities have the possibility to object processing by sending an email by at maximum the 26 November 2022 to contact@cll-conference.eu

Personal data may be stored in the Commission's document management system (for further information on the Commission's document management system please refer to the processing operation 'Management and (short- and medium-term) preservation of Commission documents', reference number: DPR-EC-00536).

Your personal data will not be used for any automated decision-making including profiling.

3. On what legal ground(s) do we process your personal data?

The processing operations on personal data, linked to the organisation, management, follow-up and promotion of the conference (including web-streaming, photos, audio-visual recording) are necessary for the management and functioning of the Commission, as mandated by the Treaties. Those provisions are in particular, Article 11 of the Treaty on European Union and Article 15 of the Treaty on the Functioning of the European Union. Consequently, those processing operations are lawful under Article 5(1)(a) of Regulation (EU) 2018/1725 (processing is necessary for the performance of a task carried out in the public interest or in the exercise of official authority vested in the Union institution or body).

The processing operations on personal data of the speakers for the event with whom a contract is concluded, are carried out in line with the contractual provisions. Consequently, that processing is necessary and lawful under Article 5(1)(c) of Regulation (EU) 2018/1725 (processing is necessary for the performance of a contract to which the data subject is party or in order to take steps at the request of the data subject prior to entering into a contract).

Your consent is required for:

- the processing of your personal data relating to your dietary requirements and/or access requirements;
- the sharing of the conference attendee list containing your name and affiliation among participants, in order to create working groups to continue the collaborate work launched during the conference;
- in the case of organisations, Member States' authorities and other public entities, the names of their representatives may only be included in the reports and published upon their prior freely given, specific, informed and unambiguous consent, in compliance with Article 3(15) and Article 7 of Regulation (EU) 2018/1725;

- the processing of your personal data for inviting you to future events the data controller may organise;
- the processing of your personal data for managing your subscription to a newsletter of the data controller.

If you opt-in, you are giving us your explicit consent under Article 5(1)(d) of Regulation (EU) 2018/1725 to process your personal data for those specific purposes. You can give your consent via a clear affirmative act by ticking the box(es) on the online registration form.

Your consent for these services can be withdrawn at any time. You can withdraw your consent for these services at any time by contacting the controller for this event (see Heading 12).

4. Which personal data do we collect and further process?

The following personal data will be processed:

- contact details (function/title, first name, last name, name of organisation, city, country, e-mail address, telephone number);
- nationality, passport or identity card number and its date of issue and expiry date may be collected, so that the data subjects may obtain access to the premises where the meeting/event is held;
- dietary requests (if any) or specific access requirements;
- photos and audio-visual recordings depicting you in an identifiable way.

5. How long do we keep your personal data?

The Data Controller only keeps your personal data for the time necessary to fulfil the purpose of collection or further processing.

For each of the categories of personal data that is processed, please find below the retention details and the reference to the relevant record of processing:

- All personal data related to the organisation and management of the conference (this includes the information given during the registration, before, during or after the event) will be deleted one year after the last action in relation to the event.
- Sensitive personal data relating to dietary and/or access requirements will be deleted as soon as they are no longer necessary for the purpose for which they have been collected in the framework of the event, but no later than within 1 month after the end of the conference.
- Recordings from the web-streamed event will be kept for 2 years before being deleted. More information is available in the Record of Processing DPR-EC-00306 (Web-streaming of Commission events).
- In case of audio-visual recording of the conference, the recordings will be kept for 3 months after the event before being deleted. More information is available in the Record of Processing DPR-EC-01937 (Audio-visual recording of meetings).

- Personal data shared with the Directorate-General for Human Resources and Security of the European Commission for the participants to gain access to Commission buildings is kept for 6 months after the termination of the link between the data subject and the Commission. More information is available in the Record of Processing DPR-EC-00655 (Commission Physical Access Control System (PACS)).
- Personal data shared with the controller for future mailing purposes (e.g., for receiving newsletters or invitations to similar events) are processed in line with the Record of Processing DPR-EC-03928 on Management of subscriptions to receive information.
- Selected service providers for organisational purposes (such as caterers, travel agents or event management organisations) are contractually bound to process personal data on behalf of and in line with the instructions of the data controller, keep confidential any data they process and protect it from unauthorised access, use and retention.

6. How do we protect and safeguard your personal data?

All processing operations are carried out pursuant to Commission Decision \(EU, Euratom\) 2017/46 of 10 January 2017 on the security of communication and information systems in the European Commission.

The Commission's contractors are bound by a specific contractual clause for any processing operations of your personal data on behalf of the Commission, and by the confidentiality obligations deriving from the General Data Protection Regulation ('GDPR' - Regulation \(EU\) 2016/679).

In order to protect your personal data, the Commission has put in place a number of technical and organisational measures. Technical measures include appropriate actions to address online security, risk of data loss, alteration of data or unauthorised access, taking into consideration the risk presented by the processing and the nature of the personal data being processed. Organisational measures include restricting access to the personal data solely to authorised persons with a legitimate need to know for the purposes of this processing operation.

7. Who has access to your personal data and to whom is it disclosed?

Access to your personal data is provided to the Commission staff responsible for carrying out this processing operation and to other authorised Commission staff according to the "need to know" principle. Such staff abide by statutory, and when required, additional confidentiality agreements. Tipik as service provider assisting the Commission will also access to your information for the purposes of organising the event.

Legal name of the Processor: Tipik Communication Agency SA

Official postal address: Avenue de Tervuren, 270, 1150 Brussels, Belgium

Functional mailbox and/or telephone number: info@tipik.eu / 0032 2 235 56 70

8. Cookies

Cookies are short text files stored on a user's device (such as a computer, tablet or phone) by a website. Cookies are used for the technical functioning of a website (functional cookies) or for gathering statistics (analytical cookies).

When you visit the website(s) of our event and when you register, we will keep the browser history of your visit for a maximum of 3 months. This information will then be deleted. The collection, aggregation and anonymising operations are performed in the data centre of the European Commission under adequate security measures.

Enabling these cookies is not strictly necessary for the website to work but it will provide you with a better browsing experience. You can delete or block these cookies, but if you do that, some features of the meeting/event website may not work as intended.

The cookie-related information is not used to identify data subjects personally and the pattern data is fully under the Commission's control. These cookies are not used for any purpose other than those described here.

Should you wish to opt your personal data out of our anonymised, aggregated statistics, you can do so on our cookies page. In particular, you can control and/or delete those cookies as you wish.

9. Third party IT tools, including Social Media

We use third party IT tools to inform about and promote the event through widely used communication channels, including social media. For detailed information about the use of social media by the European Commission, see the Record of Processing DPR-EC-00073 (Social Media Use by the European Commission).

You can watch our videos, which we also upload to our social media pages (Twitter) and follow links from our website to our social media pages.

In order to protect your privacy, our use of third party IT tools to connect to those services does not set cookies when our website pages are loaded on your computer (or other devices), nor are you immediately redirected to those social media or other websites. Only in the event that you click on a button or "play" on a video to watch it, a cookie of the social media company concerned will be installed on your device. If you do not click on any social media buttons or videos, no cookies will be installed on your device by third parties.

In order to view such third-party content on our websites, a message will alert you that you need to accept those third parties' specific Terms and Conditions, including their cookie policies, over which the Commission has no control.

We recommend that users read the relevant privacy policies of the social media tools used carefully before using them. These explain each company's policy of personal data collection and further processing, their use of data, users' rights and the ways in which users can protect their privacy when using those services.

The use of a third party IT tool does not in any way imply that the European Commission endorses them or their privacy policies. In the event that one or more third party IT tools are occasionally unavailable, we accept no responsibility for lack of service due to their downtime.

10. What are your rights and how can you exercise them?

You have specific rights as a 'data subject' under Chapter III (Articles 14-25) of Regulation (EU) 2018/1725, in particular the right to access your personal data and to rectify them in case your personal data are inaccurate or incomplete. Where applicable, you have the right to erase your personal data, to restrict the processing of your personal data, to object to the processing, and the right to data portability.

You have the right to object to the processing of your personal data, which is lawfully carried out pursuant to Article 5(1)(a) of Regulation (EU) 2018/1725 on grounds relating to your particular situation.

The Directorate-General for Health and Food Safety, Health Security Unit will ensure that the data subjects can exercise their right to object to processing whenever possible by the organisers of the meeting/event (for example, on the spot by indicating a non-web streamed seat if requested; or ex-post, by deleting a specific sequence from the online video/voice recording).

You will be able to withdraw your consent at any time by notifying the data controller. You can exercise your rights by contacting the data controller, or in case of conflict the Data Protection Officer. If necessary, you can also address the European Data Protection Supervisor. Their contact information is given under Heading 12 below.

Insofar you have consented to provide your personal data to the data controller for specific processing operation, you can withdraw your consent at any time by notifying the data controller at contact@ccl-conference.com The withdrawal of your consent will not affect the lawfulness of the processing carried out before you have withdrawn the consent.

You can exercise your rights by contacting the data controller, or in case of conflict the Data Protection Officer. If necessary, you can also address the European Data Protection Supervisor. Their contact information is given under Heading 9 below.

Where you wish to exercise your rights in the context of one or several specific processing operations, please provide their description (i.e. their Record reference(s) as specified under Heading 10 below) in your request.

11. Contact information

- The Data Controller

If you would like to exercise your rights under Regulation (EU) 2018/1725, or if you have comments, questions or concerns, or if you would like to submit a complaint regarding the collection and use of your personal data, please feel free to contact the Data Controller:

European Commission, Directorate-General for Health and Food Safety, Health Security Unit:
SANTE-CCLL@ec.europa.eu

- The Data Protection Officer (DPO) of the Commission

You may contact the Data Protection Officer (DATA-PROTECTION-OFFICER@ec.europa.eu) with regard to issues related to the processing of your personal data under Regulation (EU) 2018/1725.

- The European Data Protection Supervisor (EDPS)

You have the right to have recourse (i.e. you can lodge a complaint) to the European Data Protection Supervisor (edps@edps.europa.eu) if you consider that your rights under Regulation (EU) 2018/1725 have been infringed as a result of the processing of your personal data by the data controller.

10. Where to find more detailed information?

The Commission Data Protection Officer (DPO) publishes the register of all processing operations on personal data by the European Commission, which have been documented and notified to him. You may access the register via the following link: <http://ec.europa.eu/dpo-register>.
